

REFERENCES

Boundaries : state/union territory ————

Headquarters : state/union territory/district (C) (C)

Names of headquarters : state/union territory, district MOTI DAMAN DIU

Names of other important places, village NANI DAMAN Dama

forest species Babul

River / stream, Water bodies ————

Mud, Salt pan [Symbol]

Highways : national (with number), state, NH-8

District road, Other road [Symbol]

Road bridge [Symbol]

Railways with station : broad gauge [Symbol]

Settlement : urban, rural [Symbol]

Arable land, Orchard and plantation [Symbol]

Forest, Scrub and grass [Symbol]

Wasteland [Symbol]

Places of religious importance : Hindu, Muslim, Christian [Symbol]

Places of interest : historical, tourist [Symbol]

Organised open space [Symbol]

Market [Symbol]

Port, Fish-landing centre [Symbol]

Educational institution [Symbol]

Industrial site [Symbol]

Specialised handicraft centre [Symbol]

Sources : National Atlas & Thematic Mapping Organisation, Survey of India, Directorate of Census Operations, Department of Planning & Statistics, Planning & Architecture, Public Works, Education, Agriculture, Forest, Fisheries, Off Administration/Chairman & Co-Ordinator Industrial Centre, Tribal Subsector Cell, Manpower Cell, Town & Country Planning - Collector, Damian and Diu, field survey and other published documents.

The territorial waters of India extend into the sea to a distance of twelve nautical miles measured from the appropriate base-line.

Published under the direction of Dr. P. Nag,
Director, National Atlas & Thematic Mapping Organisation
Department of Science & Technology, Government of India,
CGO Complex, DF Block, Bidhan Nagar, Kolkata - 700 064