

La Habana

Havana is known as the Capital of all Cubans. It represents the essence of all Cubans. It is the trace of a process of many cultures, race, traditions, and costumes that were growing in each part and corner of the country.

On its 500 years of foundation, the city, it represents like a contradictory place, because with the footfall of the time it looks more attractive, enigmatic, and hospitable. It considers the cultural square more important of the country. Prodigious artistic manifestations and events as national as international. With several room theaters, museums, galleries, cinemas and public places that built an infrastructure of the Cubans system.
